BY-LAWS OF THE OXFORD MOTORSPORT SOCIETY

Made by the Committee under paragraph 28 of the Constitution

1. Status. These by-laws are made by the Committee under paragraph 28 of the Constitution in order to implement its provisions. In accordance with paragraph 35, no by-law shall be inconsistent with the Constitution, and in the event of any conflict the Constitution shall prevail.

2. The Vice-President. The one additional committee member provided for in paragraph 18 of the Constitution (that is, the "other person" on the Committee in addition to the President, the Secretary, the Treasurer and the Senior Member) shall hold the office of Vice-President.

3. Election and tenure. The Vice-President shall be elected annually by the members at the Annual General Meeting in accordance with paragraph 24, and shall be eligible for re-election. The Vice-President is a member of the Committee with full voting rights and counts towards the quorum of four for a Committee meeting under paragraph 17.

4. Status. The Vice-President is not an Office Holder for the purposes of paragraph 18 (the Office Holders being the President, the Secretary and the Treasurer), and no individual shall hold more than one office at a time.

5. Responsibilities. The Vice-President shall:

(a) support the President in overseeing the running of the Club, and deputise for the President when required;

(b) where the Committee so elects under paragraph 19, ordinarily be the Committee's nominee to chair a meeting in the President's absence;

(c) take responsibility for such projects, portfolios or sub-committees as the Committee may delegate under paragraph 27; and

(d) assist with the continuity of the Club and the handover of the Committee between years.

6. Vacancy. If the office of Vice-President falls vacant between Annual General Meetings, the Committee may fill the vacancy by co-optation until the next Annual General Meeting in accordance with paragraph 25.

7. Amendment. These by-laws may be amended by the Committee under paragraph 28, provided that any amendment remains consistent with the Constitution.
